

Zone 5 outer

Section 13: Norbiton to Strawberry Hill

Distance: 4.61 mi, 7.38 km

Introduction

This section falls into three parts: the first and last are suburban; the middle (and longest) section is along the Thames Path.

There are pubs in Norbiton and along the Thames, and some places to eat in Strawberry Hill.

Directions

Just before the road goes under the railway, go up the steps on the right.

Carry on along the footpath and then a residential road.

Turn left along the main road.

Just before the railway, turn right along Bridge End Close.

Keep straight ahead past The Norbiton.

Take the third turning left, which is Dagmar Road.

Turn right into York Road.

Pass Lowther Road, then turn left into 26-36 Dale Court.

At the end of the path, turn left along a residential road.

At the junction, bear left along Elm Road.

Take the footpath on the right, just after The Wych Elm.

At the end, bear left along Gibbon Road.

At the traffic lights, keep straight ahead along Sury Basin.

Turn right alongside the Thames.

Follow the Thames Path for a couple of miles, as far as Teddington Lock.

Cross the Thames by means of the footbridge.

On the other side, keep straight ahead to the traffic lights, then enter the churchyard on the right.

Keep straight ahead on the main tarmac path.

On the far side, turn right along Twickenham Road.

At the end, turn right.

At the end, turn left along Teddington Park Road.

Take the next right, which is Arlington Road.

Turn left into Arlington Passage, between nos. 59 and 61.

At the end, turn right.

At the first junction, go straight ahead along Strawberry Hill Footpath.

Keep straight ahead, alongside the railway, until you reach Strawberry Hill station.
